YEOVAL CENTRAL SCHOOL

Term 4 Week 2
11 October 2021

At Yeoval Central School we inspire all to be responsible, respectful and cooperative learners. Working together to achieve and grow.

WELLBEING WEEK

This week is Wellbeing Week. This is a special week planned by the NSW Department of Education to help recognise Australian Mental Health Month. At YCS we have organised a range of activities focused on mental health and wellbeing for our school community: parents/caregivers, students and staff, with the aim to better understand and support our child/ren's mental wellbeing.

Today's theme is Connect. Connections support and increase our feelings of happiness and self-worth so take some time today to get to know your peers.

Students met in the Wellbeing Room today at lunch for a Kahoot Challenge, hosted by Brad, Cooper, Kitana and Ruby.

We're all in this together! #mentalhealthweek

A message from the Principal

This week we acknowledge and promote the Department's Wellbeing Week. Our student wellbeing leaders have chosen the activities our school will participate in. As one of the major initiatives in our school plan, our wellbeing as parents and staff is vital to continue to support our children's. Having a child that suffers from anxiety, I understand the extra demands on parents/caregivers and families. Keeping on top of my own wellbeing strategies is tricky at times, but necessary as I balance my work, family and personal life. Our school's wellbeing staff are here to support students as well as our families.

All of our students enjoyed a yummy hot dog lunch on Friday as part of our welcome back to face-to-face learning. I thank Mrs Sue Hogan, our Kitchen Assistant and our student helpers who ensured all students were fed.

Last week I let our students, parents/caregivers and staff know that I will in a different role next year. It will be sad to leave YCS after nine years as principal. Our Director has prioritised filling my position, I will keep you informed once the new principal has been appointed.

I look forward to meeting with you tonight at the P&C meeting via Zoom, beginning at 6pm.
